Blaze Starts When Oil Lamp
Explodes in Hands of Its Proprietor.

BUTLER SUSTAINS PAINFUL INJURIES.

Firemen Control Fire After a Stubborn Fight of Over an Hour.

The explosion of a kerosene lamp yesterday morning about six o'clock set fire to the building occupied by the drug firm of Chas. E. Butler & Co., on Main street and for a time a serious conflagration was threatened. The blaze, however, was extinguished after a stubborn fight on the part of the firemen and after considerable damage had been done from fire and water.

The fire started on the second floor of the building when the lamp in the hand of Mr. Butler, who had gone to that part of the building for some articles, exploded, and spread very rapidly. When the firemen arrived on the scene the flames were rapidly eating their way through the roof of the building and was rapidly consuming the woodwork on the second floor.

A line of hose was run into the store and the firemen fought valiantly to confine the blaze to the part of the building where it originated, but in so doing no little damage was done by water which ran in streams from the floor above and covering everything in the rear of the first floor.

In the explosion which caused the fire Mr. Butler suffered a number of severe burns about the face and head and his hand was badly cut by a piece of glass from the lamp. He is confined to his home on Second street and it will be several days before he will be able to attend his place of business. His injuries are very painful.

According to the story of Mr. Butler he had gone to the second floor of the building, which was utilized as a place for storing surplus stocks, to secure a bottle of citrate of magnesia. It being rather dark at that time of the morning it was necessary for him to take a large lamp with him. After securing the article he desired, he closed the door and started down the stairs. Whether it was a sudden draught of air, or a defective burner in the lamp is unknown but according to Mr. Butler the light began to flutter and soon the blaze had entered the bowl of the lamp and the explosion followed.

The oil flowed freely over the floor and he attempted to hurl the blazing light through the skylight. The oil on the floor was then burning freely, and suffering from his burns and the severe cut on his hand he hastened to give the alarm. In his hurry he fell down the stairs and was badly bruised. Rushing to the front of the store he called for assistance and the alarm was given. The firemen responded hurriedly, but when they reached the scene, the fire had gained considerable headway, and in a few minutes more it is believed would have been beyond control. It was almost two hours before the blaze was subdued beyond the danger of another outbreak. As little water as possible was thrown into the building.

A railing around an opening in the floor was entirely consumed, and the walls charred by the blaze, which had gone through the roof. The building, which is owned by Mrs. Belle Alexander, was damaged to the extent of about $500. It is unable at this time for Mr. Butler to estimate his loss.

Mr. Charles E. Butler, Jr., who is in charge of the store of the firm in Carlisle, was called to this city yesterday morning, to take charge of the affairs here until his father has recovered.

TAYLOR DAIRY HERD IS SOLD AT AUCTION

The public sale of dairy cows and other live stock, crops, implements and household goods belonging to Mr. Newton H. Taylor, was held Wednesday, at the home on the Winchester pike. The weather was ideal and a large crowd was in attendance. Geo. D. Speake, auctioneer, makes the following report: Fifty-eight high-class dairy cows were sold at prices from $65 to $130 per head; brood cows, $20 to $45; horses, $147.50 to $205; mules in pairs, $250 to $407.50; single mules, $150 to $235 each; chickens, 45 to 60 cents each; guineas, 45 cents each; hay, $15 to $19 a ton. Farming implements and household effects brought good prices. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor have conducted a successful dairy business here for many years. Mr. Julian Frank has rented the farm and will move there.

INFERIOR GRADES HOLD SWAY ON LOCAL MARKET

Good Prices Realized in Spite of the Poorest Offering of Season.

WILL REACH 5,000,000
POUNDS SATURDAY

Management Thinks Rush of Season is Now Over.
Other Sales.

With some grades much inferior to any tobacco sold on the local market, this season, and with the majority of that offered being of a poor quality, the sale held at the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse yesterday, everything considered, is pointed to being the best of the season. The quality of the tobacco was to a great extent lower than that offered at the opening of the season, but the price is holding up steadily, and there is a general feeling of satisfaction among those who have placed their product on the local market.

A report which was started at the sale Tuesday and which has been repeated to parties who started the story with a view of injuring the Paris market was to the effect that two men employed at the warehouse had developed smallpox. This story was absolutely without foundation as the two men who were reported to have the disease are working daily at the warehouse.

At the sale yesterday 234,995 pounds were sold for $32,448.40, an average of $11.40, which is considered very high for the quality of the offering.

With the close of the sale Saturday it is expected the five million pound mark will have been reached, and the management of the local warehouse are of the opinion that the season's rush will then be over, and it will be possible for tobacco arriving for the sales of the future to be loaded as soon as they reach the building.

During the week there have been sold on the Paris market crops from Harrison, Scott, Nicholas, Montgomery and Clark counties, and there were several consignments on the floors yesterday from neighboring counties. Following are a few of the averages:

Thompson & Holloway, 3,750 pounds, $617.15, average $16.53.
Wood & Hill, 8,845 pounds, $262.67, average $14.27.
Brook & Kline, 7,950 pounds, $87.67, average $12.48.
Grant Galloway, 3,935 pounds, $50.16, average $14.07.
C. B. Cox & Lewis, 1,790 pounds, $269.98, average $15.08.
I. S. Reynolds, 1,790 pounds, $27.68, average $15.77.
Mrs. Nellie Highland, 6,895 pounds, $888.75, average $12.88.
Clark & Eades, 2,125 pounds, $305.99, average $14.33.
C. S. Ball, 14,990 pounds, $2,003.19, average $13.35.
H. E. Clay, 12,015 pounds, $1,860.60, average $14.29.
Marston & Litter, 7,180 pounds, $132.67, average $15.77.
Rash & Johnson, 5,400 pounds, $670.44, average $12.52.
J. H. Smith, 3,130 pounds, $475.41, average $15.18.

TUESDAY'S SALE.

A total of 286,530 pounds of tobacco were sold on the local market on Tuesday for $33,300.25, an average of $11.62 per hundred. The quality of the tobacco was very poor, but prices obtained were very satisfactory. Following are a few crop averages:

Thompson & Snapp sold 7,385 pounds for $1,231.86, an average of $16.67 per hundred pounds.
Burke, Brent & Garrison sold 3,625 pounds for $468.31, an average of $12.83 per hundred pounds.
Ardery & Medlin sold 2,240 pounds for $407.52, an average of $17.62 per hundred pounds.
Redmon & Wheeler sold 6,080 pounds for $888.18, an average of $13.78 per hundred.
Miller, Lall sold 1,635 pounds for $294.23, an average of $17.40 per hundred.
Sticker & Wagoner sold 4,035 pounds for $610.77, an average of $15.19 per hundred pounds.
Ardery & Lewis sold 5,985 pounds for $874.54, an average of $14.70 per hundred pounds.
C. C. Clarke & Wells sold 6,265 pounds for $893.53, an average of $14.34 per hundred pounds.
Collins & Hudnall sold 3,640 pounds for $439.55, an average of $13.50 per hundred pounds.
Leach & Hinton sold 3,580 pounds for $524.25, an average of $14.63 per hundred pounds.
Ewalt & Snapp sold 6,315 pounds for $818.40, an average of $12.95 per hundred pounds.
Plummer & McClure sold 3,590 pounds for $496.47, an average of $13.80 per hundred pounds.

HOUSE VOTES TO ADMIT THOSE WHO TOOK LOYAL OATH

Confederates Who Swore Before
War Closed to Get

ATTEMPT TO AMEND BILL MEETS DEFEAT.

President Wilson Invited to Meet With the K. E. A.
Next May.

FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 29.—After passing a bill to license trained nurses, the House got down to work and passed eight other bills, the most important of which was to widen the Confederate pension law so as to admit Confederate veterans who took the oath of allegiance to the United States under duress before the close of the war.

An attempt was made to amend the bill to include widows who had married old soldiers up to 1900, but this was defeated. Mr. Walton made a speech against the amendment and said it would open the way for pension scandals similar to those which have appeared in National Government.

Representative Douglas, of Owen county, who is reported to have Congressional aspirations, made a fiery speech in favor of the bill.

The expected thunderstorm in the House over the Price affair, did not materialize and the body adjourned after adopting a resolution endorsing the invitation of the Kentucky Educational Association to President Woodrow Wilson to attend the annual meeting in Louisville May 1.

NO STATE-WIDE "DRY" BILL.
FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 29.—There will be no State-wide prohibition bill introduced in the Kentucky Legislature during this session.

This was finally decided at a meeting held in Frankfort Wednesday between Representatives of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Kentucky Branch of the Anti-Saloon League.

WALL APPOINTED.

FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 29.—The name of Judge Garrett S. Wall, of Maysville, was today sent to the Senate to succeed himself as a Democratic member of the State Board of Control. His nomination was immediately confirmed.

CHRONIC CONSTIPATION CURED

"Five years ago I had the worst case of chronic constipation I ever knew of, and Chamberlain's Tablets cured me," writes W. S. Fish, Brookton, Mich. For sale by all dealers. (Jan) (adv)

In the Lexington market this season has scored Wednesday, when five baskets aggregating 1,307 pounds from the crop of Heatt & McCray, of Fayette county, sold for $39 per hundred. This crop was remarkable for the large amount of cigarette wrapper it contained, and 3,405 pounds brought a shade above $25 a hundred. The general quality of the offerings was better than has been before on the market recently, although there was so much common tobacco. Sales were a little higher on the better grades.

SHELBYVILLE.

The loose leaf market was strong Wednesday at Shelbyville, but the poor quality of the offering reduced the average to $10.20 the hundred. A total of 250,000 pounds was sold at prices ranging from $2 to $20. There were few rejections. Receipts were lighter.

DANVILLE.

Two hundred thousand pounds of tobacco were sold Wednesday at Danville at an average of thirteen cents per pound. Prices ranged from $4.25 to $28 a hundred. The market was strong.

CARLISLE.

Tobacco sales at Carlisle Wednesday amounted to about 240,000 pounds. Prices were from $2 to $27. The market was strong and snappy, with high crop averages.

MT. STERLING.

A total of 246,351 pounds of tobacco were sold at Mt. Sterling Wednesday. Prices were firm. Offerings ranged from 2 to 20 cents. Nothing fancy was offered.

MAYSVILLE.

Wednesday's tobacco sales at Maysville totaled 533,800 pounds, selling at from $2 to $25 per hundred. Offerings were medium. The market was active and strong.

"AL" RINGLING—FAMOUS CIRCUS MAN.

In the "Interesting People" department of the February American Magazine appears an account of "Al" Ringling, the famous veteran showman. He and his brothers are the greatest powers in the circus world to-day. When they were school boys, they ran away from home and started to give a show in neighboring towns. They now own Barnum & Bailey's circus and many other of the most important shows. In the article Mr. Ringling is quoted as follows:

"I've always been in the circus business," he said. "As a schoolboy I ran away from home with one or two of my brothers and started to give a black-face show in neighboring towns. We were hardly started when my good father arrived on the scene, the second or third day, and took us home—using a combination of sheer force and persuasion of another kind. But even though he took us home, he couldn't get the 'circus' out of our systems, and in 1882 we started out in earnest."

"Our first performance was in the jail yard in Baraboo. There are lots of people who still remember that performance, largely, I guess, because the seats fell down and almost broke up the show. Of course, it was only a small venture and had little to recommend it save the enthusiasm of the performers."

"Oh, yes!" he anticipated my question—"we all performed in those days, all five of us. One of us was the ringmaster; another walked the tight rope; another ate fire; one was a clown; my own act was juggling and rolling big cannon balls up and down my arms and around my neck. Some say that's why I'm a little stooped to-day."

"Did you have any animals then, any menagerie?"

"Only three or four horses," a monkey, and a hyena—but this last had a more blood-curdling name. We called him a "grave-robbing man-eater." As such he was a great success and brought us lots of business."

"This was in our 'wagon-show' days," he continued. "We traveled by wagons for six years before we became a railroad show. In those times one year was about like another, but when we got onto the railroads we began to grow rapidly."

"I remarked that Mr. Ringling must have seen many changes take place in the circus business."

"Yes, indeed!" he replied. "And when I think of the pioneers whose names headed the 'greatest shows on earth' I begin to feel like an old man although I'm only sixty-four." A reminiscent look came into the kindly eyes which looked out from beneath black, bushy eyebrows of marked contrast to the circus man's silver-gray and close-cropped hair. Barnum, of course, has been dead a good many years. His partner and successor, Bailey, is also dead, and we boys own the Barnum & Bailey show. The Forepaugh brothers are gone; so are the Sells brothers. Their combined shows belong to me individually. There was a time also when we controlled the Buffalo Bill Wild West. Come to think of it, I'm pretty near the veteran showman to-day, although I've got four younger brothers associated with me in the business."

With the offer of 50 cents' worth of toilet articles free, the rush became so great at the Chemical and Drug Exposition in New York, that the police reserves ousted 21,000 persons from Madison Square Garden.

An Ordinance!

CITY HALL, PARIS, KY.

January 22, 1914.

Section 1.—Be it ordained by the Mayor and Board of Council of the City of Paris, Ky.

WHEREAS, it is deemed desirable to reduce the boundaries of the City of Paris by taking out of and excluding from the City of Paris the following lands now used for farming purposes, to-wit:

"Beginning on Stoner Creek at a point where the property of Mrs. Nannie Clay Hancock joins the pump station property, and running along Stoner Creek as it meanders to the mouth of Kennedy's Creek, and thence in a straight line to the Winchester pike so as to include all the lands formerly owned by the late Garrard Davis and now owned by Mrs. Nannie Clay Hancock, and thence in the middle of said Winchester turnpike northwardly to a point 320 feet south of Hal Woodford's corner; thence in a straight line to the place of beginning."

It is therefore ordered and ordained that the parcel of land above set out by metes and bounds be excluded from and taken out of and stricken from the present boundaries of the City of Paris.

SECTION 2.—This ordinance shall be published for not less than three (3) weeks in the Bourbon News, published in Paris, Kentucky.

SECTION 3.—Within thirty days after the adoption, publication and advertisement of this ordinance a petition shall be filed in the Circuit Court of Bourbon County in the name and on behalf of the city setting forth the passage, publication and advertisement of this ordinance, the object and purpose thereof together with an accurate description by metes and bounds of the territory proposed to be stricken from the city and praying for a judgment of the court to strike from the city; and said petition shall be filed not less than twenty days before the first day of the next succeeding term of the Bourbon Circuit Court.

AN INCESSANT COUGH.

A severe cough is always a grave symptom. It may not indicate organic disease of the lungs. Even though the cough is a functional disturbance it is of sufficient gravity to demand prompt attention.

The dropping of mucus from the back part of the nose into the throat indicates nasal catarrh. Sometimes this goes on a long time before the patient pays any attention to it. It is stated on good authority that mucus is dropping into the throat in this way is apt to excite catarrh of the stomach. At any rate, the condition ought to be corrected as soon as possible.

Mrs. Bourland, of Frankston, Texas, found after using Peruna that not only did the incessant cough disappear, but the dropping of mucus into the throat had also ceased. Read what she says:

"For twenty-three years I was a constant sufferer from chronic catarrh. I had a severe misery and burning in the top of my head. There was almost a continual dropping of mucus into my throat, which caused frequent expectoration. My entire system gradually became involved, and my condition grew worse. I had an incessant cough and frequent attacks of bilious colic, from which it seemed I could not recover. My bowels also became affected, causing alarming attacks of hemorrhages.

"I tried many remedies, which gave only temporary relief, or no relief at all. I at last tried Peruna, and in three days I was relieved of the bowel derangement. After using five bottles I was entirely cured.

"I most cheerfully recommend the use of Peruna to any one similarly afflicted."

People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

CHICK CHAT.

American chicken fanciers have created or developed 130 different varieties of domestic poultry, ranging from the little bantam that weighs only twenty-two ounces to the Mammoth Bronze turkey, which tips the beam at fifty pounds. Poultry breeding is now recognized as one of the scientific developments of a very scientific age.

It is claimed that even where eggs have begun to hatch under the hen, it is better to finish them off in an incubator, since by that method the wee chicks are free from liability of gathering lice or mites from the mother hen. The change should be made from hen to incubator quite a while before pipping time comes.

Remember that newly hatched chicks do not need food or water. Nature has their proper nutriment prepared for them for the first twenty-four hours.

A young man who left the city and office life and bought a chicken farm, and who has made good, tells how he began, how many discouragements he had, how he used these discouragements as ladders, and how he has ended in receiving more orders for his products than he can easily handle alone. He used incubators and saved the time of his hens for more lucrative purposes. Out of the incubators he sold day-old chicks and also eight-day-old chicks, thus saving feed and time and losses. The incubators turned out chicks faster than his early brooders. What he thus had over he fed for broilers as long as prices were high. The rest he fed for roasters in the fall. He plowed and sowed his land and raised his own feed, giving the slip to the grain dealers and middlemen. He even made the lawn clippings count, curling them the same as clover and storing them away for winter feeding. He made the waste from the wood-lot count by burning it for charcoal. It is needless to say that this diligent former newspaper man "got there."

Reflect a little and you will find that all-day free range for poultry is not conducive to profitable egg yields.

Egg farming is in a class by itself. Other farm crops are liable to meet with fluctuating prices, but this does not come to the egg farmer. The price of eggs is about the same, month by month, one year with another, and it is continually raising. Most other crops require expensive lands and costly fertilization. The egg crop can be raised on very cheap land, and hens themselves make a salable fertilizer.

The Department of Agriculture of the United States has just begun investigations into a curious method of cheating which has developed in the poultry industry. It seems that some shippers have been "fattening" fowls by supplying them, just before taking them to market, with food mixtures into which have been put rick and sand, for the purpose of making a false weight in the birds. The New York Live Poultry Dealers' Protective Association brought, in evidence, a barrel of these sand-fed chickens. Some of the crops were puffed up to the size of a small orange and weighed a half pound each, while not more than three ounces was the lawful weight of the fowls.

Mr. H. M. Lamon, of Washington City, a government expert on poultry, is now in the State to establish poultry clubs corresponding to the corn and canning clubs of the boys and girls of the State. This is a move in the right direction. The boys and girls' canning clubs have done wonderful things—things to emulate and to rejoice in.

There is a great lesson as well as great suggestiveness in the present high price of eggs and poultry, if only the stay-in-the-rut farmer will use it and heed it.

The Biddy of the fifties—yes, and of the sixties too—spent a whole year in laying some eighty odd eggs, and nearly half that time in sitting on them in the darkness and silence, then clucking small broods of chicks up to puddledom. The Twentieth Century hen is not so. She is reaching out after two hundred and fifty eggs a year and has been cut off the job of rearing refractory youngsters altogether. She is still a mother, but her offsprings belong to the master.

Two Great Classes. The human race is divided into two classes: those who go ahead and do something, and those who sit and ask, "Why wasn't it done the other way?"—Holmes.

In many homes there is a room fitted up as a guest's chamber. In furnishing it some color scheme or special design, to give it distinctiveness, is aimed at. This is always carried out in the linen, and especially in the towels which are kept for the guest room, and they thus acquire the name "guest towels."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all the other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years the doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constant failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

VACCINATED HOGS FATTEN ON SLOP

Inoculated With Cholera Serum, Swine Do Wondrous Well.

SCIENTIFIC FEEDING.

Being Tried Out By Judge Dearing and Jas. Thompson Near Louisville.

(Louisville Times)

The introduction of anti-cholera serum in Kentucky promises to revolutionize the hog industry and to put a profitable use millions of gallons of distilled slop which goes to waste. The serum prevents the development of cholera, which is due chiefly to the class of food furnished hogs, and which is supposed to follow, with definite certainty, the continuous feeding of distilled slop. The inoculation of hogs with this serum makes them immune and enables breeders to use this highly fattening, finishing product with safety and great profit. In most instances the slop from distilleries is all but a total waste, despite the fact that it contains a large percentage of the most nutritious food stuff of corn. In congested communities the slop is sold in small quantities to residents of the neighborhood of distilleries for feeding purposes, both for hogs and cows, and in some instances herds of cattle are kept at the distilling plants and fed on the slop. This latter practice, however, has been condemned so generally that it is only a matter of time before it will have to be abandoned.

Slop feeding to hogs has been customary on a limited scale for many years, but it remained for the Glen-dear Company, composed of Judge W. G. Dearing, James Thompson and Truman Davis, to enter the business of feeding hogs on a pretentious scale. The company was organized early last year with a capital stock of $10,000, and rented Judge Dearing's farm of 127 acres, near Valley Station, on the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railroad Company's line. In April the company began business with a few hogs, and now has approximately 1,400 hogs from the State Experiment Station at Lexington. These hogs were taken to the farm several months ago, and are among the healthiest specimens of hogs obtainable. They are in charge of Dr. Graham, of the Experiment Station.

According to the statistics which have been compiled, the hogs have gained approximately one pound each day since they have been put on the slop feed. It is figured that the total cost of feeding the 1,400 hogs on the Glen-dear farm averages 1 1/4 cents per day. This includes interest on the investment, help hire and expenses of all kinds.

The company figures that each hog will net $5 after a feeding process of ninety to 120 days, and that two or three crops can be raised on a single farm annually. The Glen-dear farm can accommodate 10,000 hogs, and there is sufficient slop available from the Glenmore distillery, owned by Mr. Thompson, to feed twice that many hogs. It is estimated there is enough slop wasted annually to feed 100,000 hogs.

The company has built substantial houses with waterproof roofs and enclosed on all except the southern side. The houses are provided with straw, a supply of which is contained in a barn having a capacity of three car loads. The slop is fed to the hogs by gravity through troughs. A large cotton oil tank has been placed near a siding leading from the main line of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railroad Company to the Glen-dear Company's farm. The slop is hauled from the Glenmore distillery at Owensboro in tank cars by the Glen-dear Company.

The tanks hold 6,000 gallons each and are emptied as needed into the tank at the siding. From this tank the slop flows into open troughs and is distributed by gravity force to the feeding troughs. Judge Dearing estimates that two men can feed 10,000 hogs. In addition to this, the hogs are fed alfalfa and sorghum, there being sufficient tillable land to grow the amount required for feeding purposes.

All of the hogs on the farm have been inoculated with the serum which is prepared from the blood of hogs affected with cholera and treated by some chemical process. About ten days after the hogs have been inoculated with serum they are inoculated with the pure cholera blood from hogs affected with the disease. If they withstand this test they are considered to be immune.

When the company first started operating they had some losses because of their failure to segregate sick hogs, but immediately they procured the services of Edward Poe, an expert hog breeder from St. Joseph, Mo., who keeps a close watch on the entire drove. The temperature of each hog is taken every two weeks, and whenever the temperature of a hog runs over 104 degrees it is placed in the hospital enclosure and treated. Losses are very small. In fact, illness is rare on the Glen-dear farm.

It is estimated that hogs weighing 100 pounds, if treated with the serum and fed on slop, will develop to a weight of 200 to 250 pounds within 100 to 150 days, making fully a pound a day.

There is some difference of opinion as to the quality of fat produced by corn and slop feed, but the general impression prevails that there is really very little difference.

HIS NEW MEDICINE SAVES YOU MONEY

We are druggists right here in your town and make a living out of the drug business, but it is because people have to have drugs and not because we like to see people suffer—we don't. Our duty is to render the best service we can, and when someone is ailing, we are interested in seeing them take the best medicine there is for their particular trouble. We don't mention "cure-alls" as we don't believe there are such things. We don't want you to spend more than you have to. Some of you get small wages, and when you're sick, none at all, and you should get the most you can for your money.

We recently came across a new remedy for increasing strength and building up people who are run down and emaciated. We know that a slight trouble grows into a serious one, and to stop it in the beginning, will save you money in the end. This new compound is called Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is the best remedy when you are run-down, tired out, nervous—no matter what the cause. It doesn't merely stimulate you and make you feel good for a few hours, but takes hold of the weakness and builds you up to a healthy, normal condition. It is a real nerve-food tonic and builder of good blood, strong muscles, good digestion. It contains Hyposulphites, which tone the nerves, and pure Olive Oil, which nourishes the nerves, the blood and the entire system. Pleasant to take. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. We promise that if you are not perfectly satisfied with it, we'll give back your money as soon as you tell us. Sold only at the 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us $1.00—G. S. Varden & Son, Paris, Ky. (adv)

HIS STOMACH TROUBLES OVER

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Baker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says: "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets; then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers. (adv)

LION KILLS MOVIE MAN IN AFRICA.

An encounter with a lion caused the death near Nairobi, Africa, of Fritz Schindler, a member of an American moving picture expedition engaged in taking pictures of wild animals in their natural surroundings in Africa. Schindler, with others of the expedition, was attempting to photograph a lion in the jungle when the animal sprang on him.

HAVE NO RIGHT TO SUSPEND JUDGMENTS

The Court of Appeals has just affirmed the judgment of the Daviess Circuit Court in the case of Albert Blahand against the Commonwealth. Appellant was indicted in 1911 for grand larceny, and upon trial was found guilty of petty larceny and sentenced to twelve months' confinement in the county jail. He asked for a new trial, which was refused by the lower court, and the motion was sustained by the Appellate Court. His jail sentence was then suspended to thirty days by the Jailer. The court says the practice of suspending judgments of courts in misdemeanor cases is a failure to enforce the law and encourages crimes and is a menace to good government.

NOTICE FROM HEALTH BOARD.

Physicians and heads of families are respectfully referred to Section 2060 of the Kentucky Statutes, which provides as follows:

"Section 2060—Any physician or head of a family who shall fail or refuse to report to the local Board of Health in cases of cholera, smallpox, yellow fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria and other epidemic diseases as provided for in Section 2055 of the act mentioned in the title of this act, shall be fined not less than five dollars for each day he neglects or refuses to report. (Section as amended by Act of March 3, 1894)

Please take due notice and govern yourselves accordingly.

COUNTRY HOMES IN TWO COUNTIES BURNED

A large two-story country home, belonging to John White, near Ewington, five miles from Mt. Sterling, was destroyed by fire with its contents on Wednesday night. The loss will reach $5,000, partly covered by insurance. The home was one of the largest in the county.

Fire originating in the kitchen destroyed the country residence of M. O. Flynn, near Carlisle, Tuesday night with all its contents. The loss is $2,500; insurance, $1,300.

NICHOLAS COUNTY BOYS HELD FOR BURGLARY

Archie Flora, a young man of Pleasant Valley, Nicholas county, was held to the Nicholas county grand jury in the sum of $500 by County Judge James Mitchell on a charge of burglary. Joe Tingle, a youth of Pleasant Valley, was recently convicted of robbing the office of E. C. Flora, postmaster and railroad agent at Pleasant Valley, and sentenced. After his conviction Tingle made an affidavit accusing Flora. On his examining trial Flora's defense was an alibi.

LEXINGTON SUES BURLEY SOCIETY FOR BACK TAXES

Through Delinquent Tax Collector George T. Gess, the city of Lexington has filed suit in the Fayette Circuit Court against the Burley Tobacco Society seeking to collect taxes on property valued at several hundred thousands for the tax years of 1911, 1912 and 1913, the city alleging that the company had on hands for those years a large amount of money in the bank, notes and tobacco in bulk hogsheads which were not assessed for city and State taxation. The amount of back taxes claimed by the city and for which suit is brought aggregates $70,000.

KENTUCKIAN'S PATENT MUST BE TRIED OUT

Representative J. C. Cantrill has arranged for a preliminary test of a mail-catching device that is patented by S. O. Boulwar, a banker from Campbellsburg. He learned from the Second Assistant Postmaster General that arrangements will have to be made with an official of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company to carry out the test on a branch of the road for six months, under the supervision of the Post-office Department, to determine the practicability of an official test by the department.

JAPAN'S ATTITUDE TOWARD MEXICO PEEVES CONGRESS

Arms Being Supplied From That Source to Huerta Government.

SITUATION ASSUMES GRAVE IMPORTANCE.

No Rupture Likely; Washington Will Unravel Diplomatic Knots.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—While there is no sentiment at the National capital in favor of precipitating a rupture of the friendly relations between the United States and Japan, the irritation in Congress caused by the press agent activities of the Japanese Embassy in this city last week was intensified Wednesday by the semi-official confirmation of the report which emanated from apparently authentic sources recently, that Japan has been selling arms to the Huerta Government in Mexico.

From trustworthy Senatorial sources came the statement this afternoon that these shipments of arms were in pursuance of a contract made by the late President Madero at the time the revolution which culminated in his disposition and assassination was organizing.

In consequence of this revelation and of the festivities ordered by Gen. Huerta in honor of the officers of the Japanese battleship Idzumo in Mexico City, the Mexican question begins to assume graver importance than when it was being considered as an uncomplicated international problem.

That Japan should inject herself into a situation which was sufficiently troublesome of itself naturally has served to add to the resentment that has been felt for some time over the continued pugnacious attitude of that government and of the repeated, though veiled, intimations that the differences between the two countries might have to be settled by other than diplomatic means.

The President and officials of the State Department reiterate that the Japanese immigration question is sure to be adjusted by diplomacy and that the delay in its settlement involves no ominous portent.

KENTUCKIAN ASSAILS "SCARE"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Preparation of the United States for war and "the annual war scare" were assailed to-day by Representative Shirley of Kentucky, when he presented the fortifications bill to the House for general debate.

Representative Shirley referred particularly to Rear Admiral Vreeland's opinion given in the naval affairs committee yesterday to the effect that the United States was not in a position to defend the Philippines.

"I can assure the House that our fortifications are in no such condition of unpreparedness as to cause alarm," said Representative Shirley.

"A Spartan Girl of the West"—The cattle are rustled by a neighbor, who poses as a gentleman. Molly likes him rather well, and when her suspicions are aroused, investigates on her own hook. She catches him with the goods, but hides him from the Sheriff's posse and tells him to go away and reform.

Another funny Keystone film will be shown.

Tomorrow—"The Sign of the Snake"—Well arranged scenes and careful photography characterize this Western subject. It has a story that is full of interest. When some Chinese are captured by soldiers just as they are being smuggled over the Mexican line into this country, Moon Chew is among them. She is a Christianized girl from a missionary station. She falls in love with Lieutenant Hurd, who has charge of the captured Chinese. Foo Choo, a laundryman near the fort, tells a wealthy Chinese in San Francisco of the capture of Moon Chew, who had been sold to him. Hurd is warned by notes signed with a snake to send Moon Chew to the railroad station alone. One such note is in his laundry and leads to a raid. The wealthy Chinaman from San Francisco is captured. Foo Choo steals toward them with a dagger, as they are talking in a quiet corner of the grounds. Moon Chew sees him and throws herself between Hurd and the dagger. The wound she receives is fatal. Foo Choo is shot while trying to escape.

"What Might Have Been"—A very wealthy broker is smitten with his pretty stenographer, only to lose her to a petty clerk in his own employ—who had "looks". The broker plans the couple's immediate discharge, and all manner of revenge, the folly of which is summed up to him in a wondrous and enlightening dream. A comedy reel will be shown entitled "The Rube Boss."

POLICE SIGNAL LIGHT INSTALLED BY CUMBERLAND

The city officials have had installed in front of the central exchange of the Cumberland Telephone Company, in this city, an electric light signal for the use of the company in calling the policemen on duty at night. The light is identical with that which has been in use at the office of the Home Telephone Company for several years and has been installed for the benefit of the public as well as for the convenience of the members of the police force who are doing duty at night. It is only necessary for the subscribers of the company who may desire the services of a policeman to call the central office, when the operator will flash a red light arranged in the center of the street and of a sufficient elevation to be seen from the farthest end of Main street. It is planned to have the light now in use at the Home office placed in the center of the street so that it may be more easily discerned by the patrolmen. The city officials are of the opinion that the lights so arranged before each office will improve the efficiency of the police department, and will enable them to answer calls more promptly than heretofore.

COCKING MAIN IS HELD NEAR CLARK COUNTY CAPITAL.

One of the largest cocking mains held in this section of the State is said to have been pulled off Wednesday night near Winchester which was participated in by chickens from all over Central Kentucky and many river towns of Kentucky and Ohio were also represented. The seance continued through the night until dawn yesterday morning. Maysville chickens are said to have carried off all of the laurels and the sports from this city realized handsomely from the play. Bourbon chickens, it is said, were strongly backed, but were defeated in almost every match.

SW HOG CHOLERA IS BEING COMBATED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.—The Department of Agriculture, during the past year, has been conducting campaigns in Indiana, Missouri, and Nebraska to control the contagious disease of hogs known as hog cholera by means of anti-hog cholera serum and farm quarantines. One county (Pettis County, Missouri) here has a loss of 13 per cent. in 1913, and 25.6 per cent. in 1912 of all hogs raised, there was a loss of 14.7 per cent. up to November, 1913. This decrease was due to the use of the serum, which, although not used there by the Department's agents until August, 1913, materially reduced the loss. About 60,000 hogs were raised during the past year and of the 10,000 that died of hog cholera only about 1,000 were lost after the active use of serum and quarantine measures were inaugurated.

In every county where these measures were employed, even though begun after the disease had continued its ravages for some time, there was less loss from hog cholera than in either of the two preceding years.

In addition to its great function as a preventive, it has been found that the anti-hog cholera serum would cure a large portion of hogs in the early stages of the disease and render them immune after recovery. However, if hogs are not treated by this serum, from 75 to 100 per cent. of all affected hogs die. This serum, so far as is known, is the only thing that will prevent the disease.

Of hogs actually sick when treated, the Department's inspectors lost but 25 per cent. during the past summer. Of well hogs in diseased herds, 2.8 per cent. died after being treated and of hogs in exposed lands less than 1 per cent. died after being inoculated with the serum. In an infected herd there is always a certain proportion of hogs that are well.

The inspector examines the hogs when he arrives, takes the temperature of all hogs in the herd and separates the sick from the well. The temperature is an indication of the sickness. The temperature of a sick hog, unless the hog is near death, will run above 140 degrees and sometimes as high as 107 or 108 degrees F.

Some States are engaged in the manufacture of serum to cure this disease. This serum requires special treatment to preserve its quality and a qualified man to produce it. Sufficient serum to treat an average hundred-pound hog costs about thirty cents at a liberal estimate. The treatment is by hypodermic injection.

The Department in initiating its campaign against the devastating hog disease has only been able to commence in a few of the districts where the cholera was the most widespread and where the active co-operation of the State was offered in enforcing ordinary quarantine measures, etc.

The object of the Department has been to endeavor to control the disease and if possible, to eliminate it from the country. To secure this end the best efforts of the farmer himself are necessary. The campaign against this devastating sickness during 1913 was planned in the territory selected along three lines.

1. The education and organization of the farmers in the districts selected, to be carried out primarily by the State College.

2. The enforcement of sanitation and restrictive regulations by the State veterinarian.

3. Active supervision by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department and the inoculation of diseased herds and exposed herds with the anti-hog cholera serum.

A county in each State was selected as a unit and the method of work in that county was, briefly, for the State College to secure the co-operation of intelligent, active farmers in each township in the county. These men were called volunteer assistants and they were to keep in close communication with the Department's inspector stationed in that area, keeping him informed of conditions and securing statistics concerning the hog industry. In this manner conditions were pretty well learned in the territory under inspection. When an outbreak of hog cholera was reported the Department's inspector went to that outbreak and saved all the hogs he could by treatment with serum. As the disease is very easily transmitted, he then protected all herds in the immediate vicinity by inoculation. The idea was to form a zone of immune animals around the infected center.

Hog cholera is caused by a germ that exists in the blood. It is an organism apparently so small that the most powerful microscopes do not show it. However, it is easy to demonstrate its presence by inoculating a small part of the blood from a sick hog into a well one, which produces the hog cholera.

Hog cholera is a disease which seems to be stopped to a degree by the frosts of winter, although frost cannot be said to stop a case after it has taken hold of its victim. However, it seems to prevent the rapid spread of the disease. The result is that in spring time the affection is as a rule, at the lowest ebb, but increases rapidly from that time until fall.

Hog cholera does not seem to affect any particular breed of hogs more than another, and while generally the careless farmer is more apt to have the disease among his hogs than the careful one, the disease sometimes occurs where the conditions are sanitary. It is hoped that the work may be extended gradually until the disease is completely controlled or eliminated. The fact that hog cholera is carried not only by the hogs themselves, but by birds, dogs, streams and even on the feet of men going from one farm to another shows how necessary it is that the campaign be thorough and that farmers exert their best efforts to assist in the work.

An apple filled with cloves was a common object in many houses a generation or so ago. A man in Atchison, Kansas, claims a specimen that has been preserved since 1872.

THEATRICAL.

Joseph and His Brethren

The third of the Century Theatre dramatic spectacles, "Joseph and His Brethren," will come to the Grand Opera House, Cincinnati, for the week beginning Monday, Feb. 2. In some respects it is built on a larger scale than either of its predecessors, for it has thirteen scenes, where "The Garden of Allah" and "The Daughter of Heaven" had only eight. There are more than two hundred people in the production and more than sixty speaking parts. Its success has been phenomenal.

"Joseph and His Brethren" is a vitalized version of the story in the book of Genesis, written for the stage by Louis N. Parker. Mr. Parker is known chiefly in America for his "Disraeli" and "Pomander Walk," but in England he is known as the author of many other successes, including "Drake," the hit of the last London season. "Drake" was given a spectacular production at His Majesty's Theatre by Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree, who has also produced "Joseph" there this season.

To present "Joseph and His Brethren" the Liebler Company has selected a cast of unusual ability. Brandon Tynan, who has been a star in his own plays, and leading man for Nazimova, will play the role of "Joseph." James O'Neill, of "Monte Cristo" fame, will have the part of Jacob, the patriarch, and in the third act will play Pharaoh. Pauline Frederick, pronounced by artist Harrison Fisher the most beautiful woman in America, and numerous other players of reputation will be seen in the cast, while the heads of all technical departments of the Liebler Company who worked out and produced the so-called "effects" in the play, will accompany the big production to insure its smooth production in Cincinnati.

The four acts of "Joseph and His Brethren" will be known as "The Coat of Many Colors," "The Temptation," "The Dreams," and "The Deliverer." The scenes will be respectively "The Tents of Shechem," "The Wells of Dothan," "Jacob's Tent," "In the House of Potiphar," "Potiphar's Garden," "Zuleika's Room," "In the House of Potiphar," "In the Prison," "In Pharaoh's Palace," "Jacob's Tent," "The Entrance to Joseph's House," "The Pyramids," and "In Joseph's House."

The seat sale opened yesterday. Mail orders with remittances will be filled in the order received. (30-3t)

Nervous?

Mrs. Walter Vincent, of Pleasant Hill, N. C., writes: "For three summers, I suffered from nervousness, dreadful pains in my back and sides, and weak sinking spells. Three bottles of Cardui, the woman's tonic, relieved me entirely. I feel like another person, now."

MONSTER OF FORMER DAYS EXHUMED FROM GRAVE.

(Los Angeles Times)
The Board of Supervisors has been asked by the Los Angeles County Museum of History, Science and Art for $19 worth of wheelbarrows to transfer the bones of the only imperial elephant ever recovered from the Pleistocene period, out of La Brea pits, the "deathtrap of all ages." Incidentally the Los Angeles Times reports that these hand tractors will also help to convey the oldest wood tree in the world out of the same tar beds.

In speaking of this tree, Director Frank E. Daggett, of the museum, calls attention to the fact that there are numerous specimens of fossil trees now petrified and that might surpass by a few thousand years the age of the 200,000-year-old cypress, just uncovered, the wood of which could be used in making furniture or for other useful articles.

But for his need of wheelbarrows it might have been weeks or months before Director Daggett would have made public his great find, waiting such a time as would permit the assembling of the parts and the reconstruction of the elephant and the complete mounting of the tree. As it is, the secret he has been treasuring is out because of his perfunctory letter of requisition.

At Athens-on-the-Hill about six months ago, a thigh bone of an imperial elephant was discovered, in perfect fossilized condition. Further excavations in the neighborhood failed to reveal additional portions of the monster's anatomy. In other parts of the world fragmentary parts of an immense animal have been discovered, but the entire skeleton has never before been found.

When workmen in La Brea pits several weeks ago uncovered an unusually large skull, the boss on the job failed to identify it with the mastodon or other similar prehistoric beasts. Director Daggett was called in and his joy was almost boundless, finding final release in the requisition for more wheelbarrows to transport other parts of the anatomy that were immediately afterward uncovered.

Twelve men are now at work and it is only a matter of days before the rest of the imperial beast will be exhumed. Immediately work on assembling it will be rushed, and it is expected that the huge skeleton will attract some of the archologists from distant parts of the world. The elephant frame will measure about eighteen feet in length, and, standing on all fours, about fifteen feet in height. Its tusks are of the enormous curving kind, and measure anywhere from ten to fifteen feet in length.

As for the tree it is of a variety that is absolutely extinct in this part of California. Smithsonian and Government experts at Washington have declared it a species of the cypress found only in cold climates, and one that evidently flourished in this section of California just after the glacial period. The upper portions have rotted away through long exposure to atmospheric conditions prior to the time it was completely engulfed in oil beds. Estimates place its age at about 200,000 years, and make it the oldest piece of wood in existence.

GIRLS! STOP WASHING THE HAIR WITH SOAP

Soap Dries Your Scalp, Causing Dandruff, Then Hair Falls Out.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Lotion." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through the hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable lustre and softness.

Besides beautifying and cleansing the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 5-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it. (adv)

DON'TS FOR HORSE OWNERS

Among Other Things Animals Should Not Be Fed Too Much Corn During Hot Weather Season.

(By H. P. HOSKINS, University Farm, St. Paul, Minn.)

Don't overload your horses.

Don't feed too much corn in hot weather.

Don't make any sudden change in the feed.

Don't keep your horses in poorly ventilated stables.

Don't feed grain to warm horses.

Give them hay first.

Don't allow the harness, especially the collar, to chafe.

Don't expect your horses to rollish their feed, unless the mangers are clean.

Don't give large amounts of water at one time. Small amounts frequently are much better.

Don't give your horses patent medicine that you know nothing about, especially colic remedies.

Don't keep a horse going after it begins to show signs of exhaustion. You will save him by resting a bit.

Don't allow your horses to drink a large amount of water on coming in to the stable very warm. Allow them to cool off a bit first.

Don't allow young horses to wear a set of shoes more than a month. Have them removed, the hoofs leveled and the shoes reset if they are worth it.

DIP FOR SCABIES IN CATTLE

Secretary of Agriculture Amends Order by Permitting a Stronger Solution of Tobacco.

The secretary of agriculture has amended Order 143, effective August 15, 1913, relating to dips for scabies in cattle by permitting the use of the tobacco dip prepared from tobacco and suitable tobacco products, provided it contains not less than seven hundredths of one per cent of nicotine. Heretofore, the requirements have been that the tobacco dip should contain not less than five hundredths of one per cent of nicotine and two per cent flowers of sulphur. The tobacco dip of the new strength need not contain the sulphur. The regulation remains unchanged regarding the lime and sulphur dip, which may be used as directed in the order.

Rheumatism, Sprains, Backache, Neuralgia

"Yes, daughter, that's good stuff. The pain in my back is all gone—I never saw anything work as quickly as Sloan's Liniment." Thousands of grateful people voice the same opinion. Here's the proof.

Relieved Pain in Back.
"I was troubled with a very bad pain in my back for some time. I went to a doctor but he did not do me any good, so I purchased a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, and now I am a well woman. I always keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment in the house."—Mrs. Maudie Green, 305 North 4th St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Sciatic Rheumatism.
"We have used Sloan's Liniment for over six years and found it the best we ever used. When my wife had sciatic rheumatism the only thing that did her any good was Sloan's Liniment. We cannot praise it highly enough."—Mr. George M. Jones, Iowa.

Strained Ankle Relieved.
"I was ill for a long time with a severely strained ankle. I got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and now I am able to be about and can walk a great deal. I write this because I think you deserve a lot of credit for putting such a fine Liniment on the market and I shall always take time to recommend Dr. Sloan's Liniment."—Chas. H. Jones, Baltimore, Md.

—Mrs. W. G. Daily and daughter, Miss Lucille, left Thursday for a two weeks' visit to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sanders in Cincinnati.

—Misses Nannie Louise Best and Esther Kavanaugh will give a piano and violin recital in the M. F. C. Chapel Saturday, at 8 p. m. The public is invited.

—Mrs. Marion Ballou Fisk, reader and cartoonist, gave a delightful entertainment to a large audience Tuesday evening, at the M. F. C. All who heard her were well-pleased. Mrs. Fisk is a fluent speaker, and an excellent cartoonist. Her work, which was thoughtful, abounded in much that was good to retain, and at the same time was full of humor.

—THE SICK—No change for the better in the condition of Mr. J. J. Peed. Mrs. J. H. Collier continues very much the same. The little grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Donaldson is ill with pneumonia. Adrian, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cameron, is critically ill with double pneumonia, and is being attended by Miss Chrystal, a trained nurse from Lexington.

PRICHARD & BALL LET CONTRACT FOR BUILDING.

Prichard & Ball, Monday, let the contract for their new building to be erected on Pleasant street to the firm of Hendricks, Moore & Co., of Lexington. This company sublet several contracts, January & Connell securing the contract for furnishing the steel and galvanized work, George Deitman the brick contract and Woods Bros. the contract for the foundation and the concrete work. The contractors will begin work immediately and the contract with the local firm specifies the building, which will be entirely fire proof and three stories in height, will be ready for occupancy May 1.

Mr. H. M. Lamo, of Washington City, a government expert on poultry, is now in the State to establish poultry clubs corresponding to the corn and canning clubs of the boys and girls of the State. This is a move in the right direction. The boys' and girls' canning clubs have done wonderful things—things to emulate and to rejoice in.

MATRIMONIAL.

DENNISON—NELSON.

—The marriage of Miss Lillie Denison to Mr. Lloyd Nelson was celebrated Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. A. L. Dennison, on Railroad street. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties, Rev. W. E. Ellis, of the Christian Church, was the officiating minister. The bride is one of the most estimable young women of this city, and the groom is an industrious carpenter. After the ceremony, the bridal couple were extended a dinner by the brother of the groom. After a short wedding trip they will return to this city to reside.

PARKER-DAVIS.

—Miss Anna Belle Parker, of Sadierville, Scott county, and E. S. Davis, of Paris, were quietly married Wednesday afternoon at the home of Rev. John S. Shouse, in Lexington. Rev. Shouse officiating. The couple were attended by Miss Laura Lancaster, of Georgetown, and two brothers of the groom, Roy Davis, of Georgetown, and Rex Davis, of Cynthiana. Miss Parker is a popular member of the younger set in Sadierville, while Mr. Davis is a member of the firm of Craig & Davis, of this city. After the wedding the couple returned to Paris, where they will make their home.

MANN-GIFFORD.

—Mr. Edward Gifford, of Paris, and Miss Nannie Mann, of Lexington, were quietly married Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. J. T. Atkins, in Lexington, a relative of the bride. Rev. J. W. Porter officiated. Mr. Gifford is engaged as a plumber in this city, and is an energetic young man. The bride is an attractive young woman. After a short wedding trip the couple will return to Paris to reside.

DITTMAR-MULLER.

—Mr. Samuel G. Muller and Miss Anna Dittmar, a couple from Chicago, came to this city Wednesday, obtained a marriage license from County Clerk Pearce Paton, and were married about 4:30 o'clock in the office of Mr. George W. Davis, on Fifth street, by Rev. J. S. Simms, pastor of the Methodist church.

SMITH-McGLASSON.

—Relatives and friends in this city have received the following announcement cards:

"Mr. and Mrs. John K. Smith announce the marriage of their daughter Gertrude to Mr. Malcolm McGlasson on Tuesday, December the sixteenth Nineteen hundred and thirteen Dayton, Ky.

At home 404 Fifth Avenue Dayton, Ky. The announcement of the marriage came as quite a surprise to the relatives and friends of the bride in this city. The marriage was celebrated in

DEATHS

TALBOTT.

—Mrs. Lula Talbott died Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nettie Hibler, on Eighth street. Mrs. Talbott was a comparative stranger in this city, having lived here only about two months. Previous to that time she lived in Winchester, but her only son, Mr. Weaver Talbott, who has a position with the L. & N. railroad, with Paris as headquarters, brought his mother here to live. Mrs. Talbott had been ill with pneumonia about two weeks. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Kash, and an only son, both of whom were with her when the end came.

Mrs. Talbott was a sister-in-law of Mrs. William C. Dodson and a cousin of Mrs. J. A. Gilkey, both of this city. A short service was held at the home of Mrs. Hibler by Rev. W. E. Ellis Wednesday morning, after which the body was taken to Winchester on the 9:45 train for burial.

CLEVELAND.

—Mrs. Ellen Cleveland died at her home on the Millersburg pike near Cynthiana, Monday night, after a brief illness from pneumonia. She had been sick for about a week, but was not considered in a dangerous condition until the day before her death. The funeral took place from the residence yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, with services by Rev. W. E. Ellis, of this city, assisted by Rev. Jos. D. Armstrong, of Cynthiana. The burial took place in Battle Grove cemetery, in Cynthiana.

Mrs. Cleveland was a daughter of David H. and Mary VanHook Raymond, and was born in Harrison county, on April 16, 1843. Her husband was the late Jas. A. Cleveland, who died in 1888. They spent their lives in Harrison county.

She is survived by three sons and two daughters: Messrs. D. C. and C. M. Cleveland, of Harrison county; E. C. Cleveland, of Bourbon county; Mrs. Thos. Endicott, of Lexington; and Mrs. John Smith, of Harrison county. She is also survived by one brother, Mr. John Raymond, of Indiana.

Cincinnati about four weeks ago, and the fact was kept a secret until the announcement was made to the parents of the bride.

Mr. Glasson is a Lieutenant in the United States Navy and is at present at his home in Dayton, Ky., where he and his bride will remain until October when it is expected he will be transferred to the Pacific coast.

The bride is a very attractive and accomplished young woman, and is well-known in this city. She is a niece of Misses Mabel and Flora Hill, Mrs. L. B. Purnell and Messrs. George M. and W. A. Hill, of this city. She has frequently visited her relatives here and is very popular with a host of friends.

MANN-GIFFORD.

—Mr. Everett Gifford and Miss May Mann, both residents of Bourbon county, were granted a marriage license Tuesday by County Clerk Pearce Paton.

RELIGIOUS

—Mr. D. M. Robins, Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of Woodford county, and a well-known speaker in other States, will address a meeting for men at the Paris Methodist church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This service is under the auspices of the Bourbon County Y. M. C. A., and is the first meeting of this nature since the work began here.

All men and boys over 18 years of age are cordially invited to attend. Old-fashioned hymns will be sung. Mr. Robins will speak on the subject "A Man Worth While," and a large crowd is expected. The Buffalo News said of him recently, "One of the best lecturers on the American platform."

—Special services at the Baptist church next Sunday, Feb. 1. At the morning hour Dr. C. R. Mangum will preach on the subject, "The Inward and Outward Attitude of the Church." This will be our annual roll-call service. At night the pastor will continue his series of sermons entitled "At the Devil's Bargain Counter," the subject for the evening being "The Sale of a Kingdom for an Impure Love."

GOVERNOR'S OLD HOME MAY BE SOLD BY STATE

A provision for selling the old executive mansion at Frankfort may be incorporated in a bill to be introduced to appropriate $20,000 for completion of the new mansion. The old mansion was conveyed to the State by a land company, title to remain in the State as long as the capital remained at Frankfort. The idea of retaining the old mansion as a residence for the Capitol custodian has been considered.

J. D. CRAYCRAFT

HAS PUBLIC SALE.

Harris & Speakes, the real estate brokers, conducted a successful sale Tuesday for J. D. Craycraft, on the Wade's Mill and Winchester pike about two and a half miles from North Middletown. The farm, which is a good one containing 121 acres was sold to Henry Hall, of Montgomery county, at $131.75 per acre. The stock, farming implements and house hold effects brought good prices. Horses brought from $50 to $201 each; cows, $40 to $80.50 per head; one pair mules, $300; one yearling mule, $50; sow and eight pigs, $47; chickens, 62½¢ each, and meat, 15¢ a pound. Possession of the farm will be given at once. Mr. and Mrs. Craycraft will move West.

FESTIVAL CHORUS WILL MEET AS USUAL MONDAY.

The Festival chorus will meet as usual Monday night, in the First Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock. Choruses from Handel's immortal "Messiah" will be rehearsed. Members of the chorus are urged to be promptly in their seats.

COLD WAVE WARNINGS ARE SENT BROADCAST.

The first cold wave warning of the season was sent broadcast through the State of Kentucky yesterday morning, a decided drop in the temperature being due.

Although unusually severe weather is not expected, a fall of forty degrees, which is predicted will be registered before tonight, will be all the more felt because of the summer conditions prevailing in this locality during the past few days.

Egg farming is in a class by itself. Other farm crops are liable to meet with fluctuating prices, but this does not come to the egg farmer. The price of eggs is about the same, month by month, one year with another, and it is continually raising. Most other crops require expensive lands and costly fertilization. The egg crop can be raised on very cheap land, and hens themselves make a salable fertilizer.

An Ordinance!

CITY HALL, PARIS, KY.,

January 22, 1914.

Section 1.—Be it ordained by the Mayor and Board of Council of the City of Paris, Ky.

WHEREAS, it is deemed desirable to reduce the boundaries of the City of Paris by taking out of and excluding from the City of Paris the following lands now used for farming purposes, to-wit:

"Beginning on Stoner Creek at a point where the property of Mrs. Nannie Clay Hancock joins the pump station property, and running along Stoner Creek as it meanders to the mouth of Kennedy's Creek, and thence in a straight line to the Winchester pike so as to include all the lands formerly owned by the late Garrard Davis and now owned by Mrs. Nannie Clay Hancock, and thence in the middle of said Winchester turnpike northwardly to a point 320 feet south of Hal Woodford's corner; thence in a straight line to the place of beginning."

It is therefore ordered and ordained that the parcel of land above set out by metes and bounds be excluded from and taken out of and stricken from the present boundaries of the City of Paris.

SECTION 2.—This ordinance shall be published for not less than three (3) weeks in the Bourbon News, published in Paris, Kentucky.

SECTION 3.—Within thirty days after the adoption, publication and advertisement of this ordinance a petition shall be filed in the Circuit Court of Bourbon County in the name and on behalf of the city setting forth the passage, publication and advertisement of this ordinance, the object and purpose thereof together with an accurate description by metes and bounds of the territory proposed to be stricken from the city and praying for a judgment of the court to strike from the city; and said petition shall be filed not less than twenty days before the first day of the next succeeding term of the Bourbon Circuit Court.

DADDY DONT YOU WISH YOU HAD STARTED A BANK ACCOUNT A YEAR AGO WHEN YOU WERE EARNING MORE ?

All the past year he spent money for THIS or that useless thing. Yes, money, that would have piled up in the bank. It didn't seem much, as he spent it in dribs, but now he realizes he WASTED MONEY and has nothing to show for it. Regrets won't pay for anything except wrinkled brows. Can't you deny yourself a few little things for YOUR FAMILY'S SAKE, and put it safe in our bank?
